

AbsolutePanda Education Program

Explore wildlife & nature
Enjoy learning on the road
Immerse into Chinese culture

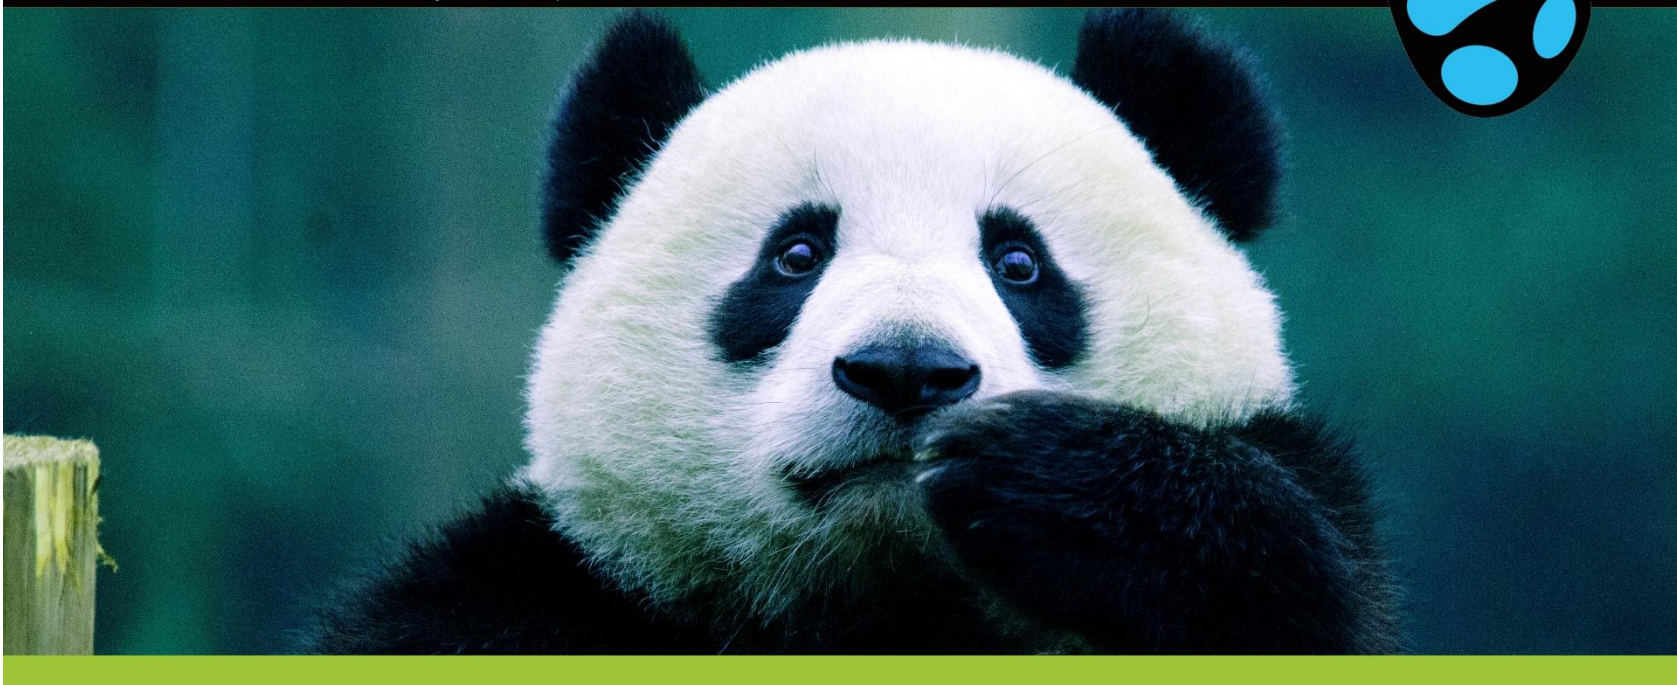

AbsolutePanda is the only travel company focusing on Panda and other wildlife in China. Basing in Chengdu, we have provided many customized family tours to explore Panda habitats and neighborhood since 2003. All of our educational trips are carefully crafted to enrich nature education for kids and build their connections to nature through facilitating their appreciation of nature and its inhabitants.

Our education programs focus on nature study and Chinese culture immersion. You have opportunity to unveil an authentic China from metropolitan to the remotest mountain village under guidance of professional local guides by many exciting programs such as

- Interact with giant panda as a day-keeper volunteer
- Learn about wildlife in their natural habitat
- Identify alpine wild flowers and birds
- Experience culture of minority groups in western China
- Environmental & outdoor class in panda habitat

The Philosophy of Black and White

— A Discovery of Giant panda and Taoism

The pattern and composition of the black and white color of giant panda, resembles the Chinese philosophy of yin and yang and coincide with the Tai Chi diagram of Chinese Taoism. In this trip, you are going to learn about wild panda, discover other wildlife in the panda's hometown and immerse in the wisdom of yin yang in the cradle of Taoism.

Highlights

- > Discover panda traces and learn about wild panda from panda experts of the most celebrated panda research center in Wolong-known as the hometown of giant panda
- > Environmental & outdoor class, hiking & camping in the panda habitat
- > Taoism philosophy immersion by practicing Tai Chi and Kung fu with a master in the cradle of Taoism
- > Serve panda by cooking food & feeding panda, cleaning their enclosures as a day-keeper volunteer

"Absolute Panda was keen to learn of our likes and dislikes in order to plan a trip best suited to our interests and needs. Philip's exceptional ability to listen, his commitment to customer satisfaction, his desire to share his extensive knowledge and his passion for his work, simply created an experience much greater than an outlined itinerary." "I have worked in china as international tour escort for ten years and with a multitude of companies and these guys are in a league by themselves. They have long track record of success for 7 years, have the best connections and the best guides. I can't say enough about them. They can also organize the best local guides for anywhere in china, and are logistical wizards all around."

-Brad J from US

"AbsolutPanda represents China, like Americans would want a tour company in the U.S. to represent America- with professionalism, pride and respect while their actions speak in a way to that oozes with historical consciousness, both culturally and ecologically. Whether you hire AbsolutPanda for an adventure, a cultural, sightseeing tour or to see the Tibetan Plateau where you will feel like the only tourist for a hundred miles, you'll leave knowing more about China than you started with, that's for sure."

-Justin G from US

We designed numerous outdoor educational trips for families and international schools throughout the world and received many testimonials from schools, students and parents. Joining our educational tour is a special learning experience which is a good complement to the natural education for both children and adults.
